Natural Resources Settlement

Announcement that the Alberta Government had accepted the offer of the Federal Government with respect to the return of the natural resources to provincial control, was made in the Legislature during the past week by Premier Greenfield. The basis of settlement is that the province will take over the remaining resources, and will receive a payment of the amount of the present subsidy for three years. The agreement is subject to authorization by both the Federal Parliament and the Provincial Legislature.

Mr. Herman Dageforde was out on the war path the other day and bagged two large coyotes within a space of ten seconds. There were four in a bunch and he shot one while they were standing and the other one on the run. The weapon he used was a 250-3000.

Government Telephone Report

Necessity for higher rates of government phones in the province is emphasized in the 1924 report of the provincial government telephone branch submitted to the legislature the past week. The financial report shows, that though there was an increase of $15,987 in toll revenues and an increase of $26,132 in exchange revenues, there was a drop of $4,508 in rural phone revenue. Taken with the higher interest charges, the system was left with a net deficit of $123,712.19 for the year. A total of 1937 rural phones were removed during the year, and 1,318 phones were added, showing a net loss of 619 phones. The report refers to the large mileage of "dead" line in the rural districts, and the non-existence of a proper replacement fund, as reasons pointing toward the necessity of increased rates in the near future. In exchange phones there was a net gain of 904 during the year.

There are now a total of 54,000 phones in use, of which 20,000 are rural. A total of 974 cities, towns and hamlets in the province are connected by the system, and there is connection with 461 points in Saskatchewan, 238 points in Manitoba, 540 points on the Mountain States phone system in the Western States, and 32 points in B. C. The total long distance circuit mileage in the province is now 35,502 miles, of which 599 miles are in the Peace River district.

The report comments on the fact that the system is one of the best organized on the continent from the standpoint of service.

Alberta Coal For Ontario

An official announcement was made on Wednesday in the Ontario legislature by Premier Ferguson that one hundred thousand tons of Alberta coal will start rolling to Ontario on May 1st, the railways carrying the coal at actual cost.

Naturally this news is being received with great joy by the coal mining interests of Alberta and it is stated that instead of the miners only working steadily three or four months in the year that this big amount will provide ten months work which will overcome a lot of dissatisfaction amongst the miners.

Encourage the New Settlers

The immigration season of 1925 is about to open. Already the vanguard of what is expected to be the largest influx of new settlers since 1913 is preparing to leave the British Isles, and from then onward for some months every trans-Atlantic steamer will bring its quota. Canada will welcome these new settlers provided they are of the right type and come with a full determination to work for themselves and their adopted country and not to lean on others and look to the Government to pamper and support them.

Canada will welcome them because it is now generally recognized that this Dominion needs population and needs it badly. No other country in the world with anything like the same population is attempting to carry the same burdens and provide the extensive national services for its people that Canada is. Nor is there any other country of small population where the extent of the national territory is so vast, and, as a result, settlement so sparse and scattered.

During the last half century this Dominion has poured out money like water in order to build railways, improve waterways and harbors, erect public buildings, provide public services of all kinds, open up the country for settlement, and develop its natural resources. Without most of these services the land would not be available for settlement, but, unless that settlement follows, the financial burden to be borne by the people who are now here, and who with courage and foresight provided these services, will crush them, especially as on top of the debt created for these national undertakings there has been piled the still greater burden of a huge war debt.

The future of the Dominion is inextricably bound up with the securing of a larger population, and a population composed of men and women and youths who, instead of being afraid of hard work, will welcome it, and who are prepared for some years to forego the luxuries and pleasures and some of the conveniences of life in order to firmly establish themselves and provide a solid foundation for future prosperity and a competence for their children.

Under existing regulations, which must be adhered to and enforced, there is little danger of Canada becoming a dumping ground for the halt, maimed, blind, disease afflicted, mentally unsound and moral degenerates of other lands. Only the physically fit and morally and mentally sound should be admitted. Others than these would not be an asset but a continuing liability to the Dominion.

More important, however, than the coming of substantial numbers of the right type of immigrants is the providing of some reasonable assurance that when they come, they come to stay. It is permanence in settlement Canada needs; not drifters using Canada merely as a jumping-off place or half-way house to some other permanent location. There has been too much of this in the past, Canada bearing the costs of such immigration without reaping any permanent benefits from it.

It is the business and duty, therefore, not of the Federal Government alone, but of each Provincial Government and each and every local community, and all national and community organizations, to do their utmost to encourage and assist the newcomers to make a success of their venture into this new land. These newcomers must, as already stated, depend largely on their own initiative and efforts, and unless they do they cannot succeed, either in Canada or elsewhere, no matter what may be done for them. But those other things which the individual cannot do or provide, but which are absolutely essential to success and permanency in settlement, must be attended to by the community and the state.

If a settler is not contented with his lot, he will not stay. If year after year passes without any visible progress being made he naturally becomes discouraged, and the next step is to pull up stakes. Nor is it the "big lacks" which are most disheartening; rather it is a combination of little things which, by community thought and enterprise, can be overcome.

For example, even if a man is making progress in a material sense, is he and his family going to "etiek" if in times of sickness or accident the family cannot get proper attention because of their isolation and lack of medical and nursing facilities? Is he going to be content if his children are growing up lacking church services, or education, because the nearest school is too far away? Bachelors and people without children must realize that it is to their interest to provide these things, and tax themselves to do so, in order that those who must have them do not lack. Only so can permanent settlement be effected, and by providing for permanent settlement everyone will benefit.

Bancroft, professor of chemistry at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., addressing the local Rotary Club on "Chemistry and Service."

Continued Demand For Copper

Manager of B.C. Mine Sees Prosperity For Industry

Copper, basic metal upon which the prosperity of the mining industry in British Columbia to a great extent depends, has every prospect of remaining in good demand for an indefinitely long period, said C. P. Browning, manager of the Britannia Mine, British Columbia, speaking at the convention of the British Columbia division, Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, Vancouver.

Discovery of new uses for copper in the advancement of electricity is causing a demand for the metal which copper mining companies of the world will be taxed to fill, Mr. Browning said.

Food from the skies in the shape of corned beef and hard tack, dropped from airplanes in daily flights over the Alps, saved the lives of three Swiss Alpinists, who were marooned for eight days by terrific storms in a hut on top of the Bernina Mountains. The fliers, unable to land owing to the deep snow, flung the food to the Alpinists as they swooped down over the hut. They did this daily until the storms abated and the men were rescued.

Fewer Recruits For Army

British Enlistments Fall Off Due to Emigration to Dominions

The annual report of the British army, for the year ending September 30 last, gives the total enlistments and re-enlistments during the year as 30,000, the annual intake being 878 less than the figures for the previous year. Northern Ireland continues to be a fruitful recruiting field, and the report points out that the unemployment benefits have tended to counteract the economic incentive to enlistment in the regular army, to which the civil population, especially in industrial centres, appear to be apathetic.

Emigration to the dominions is said to have proved a serious counter-attraction to army life, and many recruits have been lost as a result. The total strength of the regular army of all ranks is given at 215,343, while the territorial reserve forces total 44,509.

Will Be Promoted Soon

In the ordinary course of events Prince George, who will be leaving for China shortly, as his ship is to be stationed with the Eastern Squadron, would remain there for about two years, but he is due for promotion before that, and this will probably entail an earlier return, so that he may be back in a little over a year.

Says She Suffered for Seven Years

Then Dodd's Kidney Pills Relieved Her of Her Troubles

Mrs. Nellie Bagan found no relief in her hospital treatment, but Dodd's Kidney Pills brought speedy relief. Gilbert Plains, Man.—(Special).—"I have been using Dodd's Kidney Pills at different times and must say that they are the best for those who suffer from kidney trouble. I had a lot of trouble for 7 years and I was in hospital for quite a while, but it did not do me much good. I feel quite different now since I have been taking Dodd's Kidney Pills. I would advise every man and woman who has a trouble from head to knee to try them." This statement comes from Mrs. N. Bagan, a well known resident here.

Dodd's Kidney Pills as a tonic and family medicine are without an equal. When you feel tired and run down the chances are ten to one that your kidneys are at fault.

When the kidneys become clogged or out of order, the circulation becomes sluggish, the impurities are not strained out of the blood and the result is weariness and lack of energy all over the body. Give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial and see for yourself.

TO EXTEND TIME FOR FEDERAL AID FOR GOOD ROADS

Ottawa.—An extension of time for a further period of two years from March, 1926, to those provinces which have been unable to obtain the federal aid for highways, originally granted under the Dominion act of 1919, was secured by Hon. G. P. Sturges, minister of railways and canals, to a delegation of the Canadian Good Roads Association which waited on Premier King and members of the cabinet.

Premier King promised sympathetic consideration of the proposal to prolong the principle of federal aid for good roads. Premier Veniot of New Brunswick, who headed the delegation in his capacity as president of the Good Roads Association of Canada, urged that it was the recognition of this principle rather than the grant of any specific sum, that the delegation wanted.

He pointed out that the federal government had benefited by the construction of good roads through cheap contracts for mail deliveries and still more through customs revenue on the enormously increased number of automobiles the good roads brought into the country. He suggested that this revenue or automobiles as do the state treasuries in the United States.

Premier Veniot asked that an extension of time be granted to the provinces of Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan in order that they might earn their share of the money already voted by the federal parliament for aid to the good roads system.

Under water she has a displacement of 3,000 tons and can be turned almost in her own length of 350 feet.

She is equipped with a large cannon, from which meals can be served while running under water.

Firm On Beer Measure

Toronto.—The Ontario government is prepared to stand off in its policy of amending the Ontario Temperance Act, by permitting the sale of stronger beer, according to Premier Ferguson in the legislature. Ottawa.—No Chinese immigrants landed in Canada during 1924, although 74 entered under permit, according to answers made in the House of Commons by Hon. J. A. Robb, minister of immigration. Chinese residents of Canada numbering 4,752 were re-admitted to this country after visiting abroad, in accordance with the Chinese Immigration Act. Japanese immigration totaled 510 during the year 1924. Of these, 48 were of the agricultural class and 966 of the laboring class. ## Unemployment Less During February

Figures Show Great Improvement in Manufacturing in East

Ottawa.—The February employment situation throughout Canada shows considerable recovery from the losses at the beginning of January. It is indicated by the reports of employers on February 1. Statements from 5,832 firms, employing 709,878 persons, gives an increase of 15,821 more than on January 1, 1925. This increase, according to the dominion bureau of statistics, is practically coincident with the average gain in the past four years. Improvement in manufacturing was most pronounced, except in the textile provinces. The revival in Quebec was most marked.

St. John's.—A shipment of 40,000 barrels of Canadian potatoes on the steamship Caid, now at sea, has been diverted from its destination in the British market, to go forward to the relief of the famine sufferers in Western Ireland. The Canadian shippers have made a very large cut in the price, and the cargo has been purchased by Irish Americans in Cincinnati. The Caid is carrying the last shipment of Canadian potatoes to leave this country before the embargo was put in force.

Red Army Is Warned

Must Face Clash With Soviet Enemies

Moscow.—In his maiden speech on army, General Michael Frunze, Trotsky's successor as Soviet war minister, sounded a warning to the Russian people to be ready to meet an attack from foreign foes. "The Red Army must realize its situation," General Frunze said. "It should know that a big military clash with the enemies of Soviet Russia is in front of it. We must get that not only our Red Army is prepared for this event, but our rear also."

Greece Bans U.S. Flour

Claims Harmful Results Have Accrued From Over Acidity

Athens.—A dispatch from Athens says a dispute has arisen with the United States legation concerning the importation of United States flour into Greece. The Greek government alleges that harmful results have accrued from the over acidity of the flour, and it has prohibited the entry of any flour of more than 150 degrees acidity. The legation has declared that the prohibition is practically a ban on United States flour.

British Settlers Coming

Conferring Of Titles Is Frowned On In S. Africa

Cape Town, South Africa.—Strong views on the granting of titles to citizens of South Africa were expressed in the House of Assembly, when a Labor motion was presented praying the King not to bestow any more titles on South Africa. In giving his support to the motion, Premier Hertzog stated it was desirable to come to an early decision on the matter, in view of the approaching visit of the Prince of Wales to the Dominion. He urged that the move be respected and declared that popular leaders of South Africa should not accept titles. South Africans as a whole, he added, were opposed to class differences. Titles were chiefly given to wealthy men for their political support.

Prefer Federal Subsidy

Money Grant Better For Manitoba Than Remaining Resources

Winnipeg.—Under present conditions and circumstances Manitoba would rather have its federal subsidy than its natural resources. This was, in effect, the opinion of Premier John Bracken, commenting on Premier Greenfield's announcement that Alberta's fight for its resources had been settled amicably.

The premier stated that Manitoba's position was in many respects different from that of Alberta. So much of Manitoba's resources had been alienated or disposed of by the federal government that in this province, for the present at least, it was better to leave the matter as it stands, accepting the federal subsidy in lieu of the remaining resources.

Sweden Mourns Death Of Former Premier

Was Regarded As One Of Country's Greatest Statesmen

Stockholm.—Flags were at half-mast throughout the country in honor of Hjalmar Branting, former premier, who died Feb. 25. All classes of people, the opponents of the former premier, as well as his followers, expressed their regret at the passing of one who was regarded as among Sweden's greatest statesmen.

One of the political effects of his death is expected to be the development of a tension—if not a complete split—within the ranks of the Socialist party which has been held together by the great force of Branting's personality.

Not For Secession

Western Canada Not Talking Secession Or Annexation Says Crerar

Simcoe, Ont.—Western Canada is not talking secession much less annexation, but still it is very much dissatisfied, Hon. T. A. Crerar, president of the grain growers, told the Canadian Club here.

If secession ever came, he said, it would have its origin in the big eastern centres of population. The chief bond for all Canada today was the effort to get the cheapest possible transportation rates for both freight and passengers. Soon the bulk of the wheat of the prairies would be shipped via Vancouver, where great wholesale interests would spring up to compete with eastern wholesalers.

Austria Using Snow Melters

Vienna.—A newly developed snow melting machine was brought into action to cope with the snowfall, and proved to be a great success. The snow is pushed into piles by automobile plows and then shovelled into large wheeled basins, against the sides of which steam jets are projected. By this means 1,350 cubic feet are melted hourly.

Curtail Sugar Production

Brisbane, Australia.—Owing to the serious over-production of sugar in Queensland, amounting to 200,000 tons, it has been decided not to assign additional land for cultivation of this crop at present.

Signs Opium Pact

Geneva.—Leon Bourgeois, on behalf of France, has signed the opium convention drawn up by the second opium conference.

PROSPECTS FOR THE FARMER ARE MUCH BRIGHTER

Saskatoon.—At the Saskatchewan school trustees' convention here, J. S. Mills, president of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Alliance, suggested that the period of training for teachers should be at least one year in length, instead of only 15 weeks as in some cases, and also declared the profession could be improved by making teachers' contracts with school boards terminative on three months notice, instead of 30 days as at present. This would mean greater security for the teacher, and would enforce careful selection of teachers by school trustees, he said.

Fred W. Bates stressed the need of beautiful surroundings for all schools and also pointed to the work of the department in teaching agriculture in the schools.

"All signs now indicate that mid-night is past and better prospects are coming into view," declared J. C. Haney, of the agricultural department of the International Harvester Company, speaking to the convention on diversified farming.

Mr. Haney said that the best information as to food production and world demand indicated that there were better times in store for farmers. "In advocating mixed, or diversified farming, we do not mean to quit for even decrease the production of wheat," he continued. "We believe the only means of maintaining the production of wheat and lessening the risk of a single project, is to diversify."

"More and better livestock and a diversified system of farming is an essential move in the right direction. Livestock and crop rotation, including legumes, alfalfa and sweet clover and cultivated corn and potatoes, will put farming on a more profitable basis."

Canada May Have Three New Canneries

United States Capitalists Apply For Million Dollar Federal Charter

Winnipeg.—The Winnipeg Free Press says: "Negotiations of United States capitalists with a view to establishing three canneries in Canada, one in the neighborhood of Winnipeg, have advanced to a stage where application has been made for a million dollar federal charter."

"The name of the company will be Allied British Canners and Distributors Limited. It is proposed to erect one cannery in Quebec and the third in British Columbia."

Average Value Of Land Remains Same

British Columbia Stands Highest Of All the Provinces

Ottawa.—Canadian occupied farm lands including both improved and unimproved land as well as dwelling houses, barns, stables and other farm buildings, is returned here at the average value of $37 an acre for 1924. The same value prevailed in 1923, according to the dominion bureau of statistics, as compared with $40 in 1922 and 1921. By provinces, the highest average value is in British Columbia, with $96 an acre for ordinary farm land, as compared with $100 in 1923.

Prince Henry III

London.—Prince Henry, third son of King George, is suffering from a feverish cold, and will be unable as had been arranged to represent the King at the London horse show.

Healthy Liver Healthy Life

Your liver—healthy or clogged, active or sluggish—makes all the difference between a vigorous, cheerful life and low spirits and failure. To subdue a stubborn liver, overcome constipation, dissipation, biliousness, indigestion, headache and the blues there is nothing on earth so good as Carter's Little Liver Pills. Purely vegetable. Small Pill—Small Dose—Small Price.

Lake Louise From The Air

Here is the first photograph ever taken from the air of Lake Louise, the Rocky Mountain gem that has defied description by artists and poets since its discovery in the early 1880's. In the foreground Chateau Lake Louise, summer resort and centre of mountaineering and trail riding activities. In the background, ten miles distant, Victoria Glacier and Mount Victoria. But what is ten miles distance in such heights?

MUNICIPAL HOSPITALS DO WELL.

Splendid showing has been made by some of the municipal hospitals in the province during the past year. In High River the municipal hospital reports that it has an actual anticipated cash surplus of $20,000 as a result of the year's operations, after providing for 1925 debenture payments, and other expenses. In Hanna the hospital has a surplus of $8,062.97 out of which it has to provide only for accounts payable to the extent of $484.33.

Here and There

An unusual consignment passed through Montreal recently in the care of the Dominion Express Company when six Rocky Mountain sheep were shipped to Austria to form part of a zoological exhibit there. The animals, which are valued at $600, came from the National Park at Banff, Alberta.

Alberta farmers have recently been shipping a new commodity to the market. During the past few years there has been a considerable increase in the number of bee-keepers and last year 160 keepers had a total production of nearly 60,000 pounds of honey, valued at approximately $15,000. The exact number of bees is not known.

Contract for aeroplane spruce has been made between Vickers Limited, manufacturers of aeroplanes, and Frank L. Buckley, of Vancouver, B.C. The spruce will be logged on the Queen Charlotte Islands and milled at the Buckley Mill at Port Clement, on Graham Island and at Burrard mill, in Vancouver. The contract calls for the delivery of two million feet during 1925.

Canada leads the world in automobile exports in proportion to production, domestic sales or ownership of motor vehicles or to population. Not relatively but absolutely the automobile exports of the Dominion are only exceeded by those of the United States. Since 1920 the motor vehicle exports of Canada have nearly doubled, the increase being from 9.8 per cent. to 17 per cent. of the automobile export trade of the world.

A special train of forty-two cars, containing nearly 900 head of stock for export to Great Britain, arrived at the Canadian Pacific Railway's East End stock yards, Montreal, recently. These, added to shipments from Packingham, Ont., Toronto and other points in Ontario and Quebec, made up what cattlemen claimed to be the greatest concentration of Canadian cattle for export in the history of the trade. From the yards the cattle were shipped by special train to the ship's side at St. John, N.B.

When the round-the-world cruise passengers aboard the Canadian Pacific steamship "Empress of France," reached Egypt recently, they were entertained by Enani Khattab, a prominent sheik holding authority over a large number of villages along the Nile. Unfortunately, the sheik succumbed to a sudden attack of heart failure. The visitors from across the Atlantic before returning to their ship were permitted to attend the funeral, which was conducted in the desert with weird and impressive religious rites, an experience few world-travellers have known.

Between 300,000 and 400,000 Canadians and Americans of Norwegian origin will gather at Minneapolis and St. Paul in June next to celebrate by a great national gathering the hundredth anniversary of the landing of the first organized party of Norwegian settlers on this continent. President Coolidge, King Haakon of Norway and Lord Byng, Governor-General of Canada, have been invited to attend. Meetings of some forty Norwegian organizations, divine service by the Bishop of Oslo (formerly Christiania), field sports, musical contests and historic pageants will make up the programme.

IN LOVING MEMORY of Oliver Weber

Yes he is gone—yet do not I
The goodness of the Lord distrust,
But meekly to His wisdom bow
Who lays my loved one in the dust.

The form is there—but seek not there
The spirit born of light and love;
Look upward, free from sin and care,
It rests in peace with God above.

Through many checkered scenes of life,
And hand in hand we've journeyed on;
For he, the labor and the strife
Are o'er—the peaceful goal is won.

The pleasant voice and cheering smile,
Which oft have soothed my harassed mind,
Are gone but for a little while,
He has not left me far behind.

Then mourn not that an heir of grace
Has reached the goal of hope and faith;
Press onward in the Christian race,
Brief is our parting now by death.

Soon I too will be called to leave
This earth, where sadly I do roam,
Soon joyfully will I receive
In Heaven, his gentle "Welcome Home."

Written by his bereaved wife,
Mrs. Oliver Weber.

Among these amendments is one which provides that no license to sell beer will be issued after April 30, 1925, save renewals to clubs already licensed. Another amendment will give the liquor board power to regulate hours of operation as well as government liquor stores, hotels and clubs. Other important amendments are also made.

WHERE A MISSTEP MIGHT MEAN DEATH

THE Hoodoos on the Cavell Motor Highway, Jasper National Park, curious stone-figures brought into being by the erosion of the earth under the constant wearing effects of air and water, draw exclamations of wonder from thousands of tourists who visit the largest of Canada's National Parks every year.

Huge flat stones, balanced as hats, atop the pinnacles of earth which have stood up firmly when the mountain side all around them crumbled or was washed away by the rushing waters, seem as though the slightest breath of wind would be sufficient to send them hurtling to the bottom of the valley hundreds of feet below. A favorite sport with the tourist is to drop large stones on the hoodoos and see them sway back and forth drunkenly, yet finally regain their poise and remain balanced as firmly as before.

The tourist in the photograph who was bold enough to scramble down and use one of the flat stones for a table on which to rest his arms, had a strenuous climb before he again regained the level surface of the Cavell Highway, which winds up from the Athabasca Valley almost to the foot of the glacier of the Ghost, that peculiar age-old formation of ice and snow which hangs on the wide stretches of Mount Edith Cavell.

Visitors to Jasper Park Lodge may travel by motor or saddle horse from the Lodge to the foot of Mount Cavell or any of the other mountains surrounding the log cabin hostelry of the Canadian National Railways.

That Canada is on the verge of a trade boom which may last until the end of this year was the statement made in Toronto recently by Richard Conway, Vice-President of the Brookmire Forecasting Service of New York. The main factor responsible for the upswing of Canadian business, he said, is the opening of the foreign markets to the grains of the past year.

Federal control of United States railroads, adopted as a war measure during the period December 31, 1917, February 29, 1920, cost the country $1,674,500,000, of which $1,123,500,000 was total loss, $538,000,000 estimated expenses and $15,000,000 was required to reimburse small deficit roads, according to James C. Davis, Director General of Railroads, who has just submitted his annual report.

Remarkable absence of timidity is being shown by wild animals in the neighborhood of Banff, Alberta, it is reported, as a result of kindly treatment. Heavy snows recently brought elk and deer into the main part of the town, where a parade by these animals is not an uncommon sight. They make the rounds of the houses, looking for tit-bits, which are not denied them. One big elk, with a magnificent set of antlers, is as regular on his schedule of calls as the milkman.

The most recent addition to the Canadian Pacific Railway's British Columbia fleet of 28 passenger ships, freighters, barges, ferries and tugs is the British Admiralty Rescue type tug, "St. Florence," which will leave Glasgow at an early date to make the 8,500 mile journey to Victoria under her own steam via the Panama Canal. She will be one of the largest towing tugs in Pacific coast waters and is capable of towing the biggest liners making use of ports in that ocean.

A Romance of the Spanish Main
CAPTAIN BLOOD
RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini
"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Peter Blood, a young Irish physician, is sent to the Barbadoes as a slave under orders of King James. There at the behest of Arabella Bishop, niece of the military commander, Colonel Bishop buys him. A Spanish galleon, under Don Diego de Espinosa y Valdez, captures the city. Blood saves Mary Trull and Arabella. He leads his fellow rebels on board the ship and captures the ship and the Don Diego. Don Diego betrays him and navigates the ship to Hispaniola, where his brother's ship is in port. Captain Blood binds Don Diego to the mouth of a cannon and offers the Don's son, Esteban, the alternative of seeing his father die, or to tell his uncle that all is well on board the Cinco Lagas. The boy accepts and they visit the galleon, where the youth makes peace with his uncle. They return to the Cinco Lagas and young Esteban learns that Blood had tricked him; his father was dead when the body was bound to the cannon. Blood sails for Tortuga, the rendezvous of buccanniers on the Spanish Main.

CHAPTER XIII.—Continued

That night Levasseur slept on board his ship, which, with characteristic flamboyance, he had named La Foudre, and there on the following day he received a visit from Captain Blood, whom he greeted half mockingly as his admiral. Levasseur entertained his admiral to dinner, and jointly they drank success to the expedition, so copiously, one the part of Levasseur that when the time came to separate he was as nearly drunk as it seemed possible for him to be and yet retain his understanding. Captain Blood was a little heavy-hearted. I have said that he was a judge of men, and his judgment of Levasseur filled him with misgivings, which were growing heavier, in a measure, as the hour of departure approached.

CHAPTER XIV.
Levasseur's Heroics

Arnprior, Ontario. "I must write and tell you my experience with your medicine. I was working at the factory for three years and became so run-down that I used to take weak spells and would be at home at least one day each week. I was treated by the doctors for anemia, but it didn't seem to do me any good. I was told to take a rest, but was unable to, and kept on getting worse. I was troubled mostly with my periods, I would sometimes pass three months, and when it came it would last around two weeks, and I would have such pains at times in my right side that I could hardly walk. I am only 19 years of age and weigh 115 pounds now, and before taking the Vegetable Compound I was only 100 pounds. I was sickly for two years and some of my friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken a bottle of it I felt a change. My mother has been taking it for a different ailment and has found it very satisfactory. I am willing to tell friends about the medicine and to answer letters asking about it."—Miss HAZEL BERNARD, Box 700, Arnprior, Ontario.

W. N. U. 1006

full hour before the time appointed for sailing, when a canoe brought up alongside La Foudre and a half-caste Indian stepped out of her and went up the ladder. He was the bearer of a folded scrap of paper for Captain Levasseur. Its contents may be roughly translated thus:

"My well-beloved: I am in the Dutch brig Jongvrouw, which is about to sail. Resolved to separate us forever, my cruel father is sending me to Europe in my brother's charge. I implore you, come to my rescue. Deliver me, my well-beloved hero! Your desolated Madelon, who loves you."

The well-beloved hero was moved to the soul of him by that passionate appeal. His scowling glance swept the bay for the Dutch brig, which he knew had been due to sail for Amsterdam with a cargo of hides and tobacco. He raised out the question in his mind.

In answer, the half-caste pointed out beyond the frothing surf that marked the position of the reef constituting one of the stronghold's main defences. Away beyond it, a mile or so distant, a sail was standing out to sea.

"There she go," he said.
The Frenchman gazed and stared. The half-caste shrank terrified before his fury. "Then up anchor, and let us after the Dutchman," he cried. "Steady, captain. What's that?" There was a restraining hand upon his shoulder, and the broad face of his lieutenant, Cahusac, a burly, callous Breton scoundrel, was stolidly confronting him. "A Dutch brig!" said he. "Impossible! We should never be allowed."

"And who the devil will deny us?" Levasseur was between amazement and fury.

"For one thing, there's your own crew will be none too willing. For another, there's Captain Blood."

"I care nothing for Captain Blood." "But it is necessary that you should. He has the power, the weight of metal and of men, and if I know him at all, ference with the Dutch. He had his own views of privateering, this Captain Blood, as I warned you."

he'll sink us before he'll suffer interference. Cursing in his soul, and even before the anchor was weighed, the association into which he had entered, he was already studying ways of evasion. What Cahusac implied was true: Blood would never suffer violence to be done in his presence to a Dutchman. But it might be done in his absence; and, being done, Blood must perforce condone it, since it would then be too late to protest.

Within the hour the Arabella and La Foudre were beating out to sea together. Without understanding the change of plan involved, Captain Blood, nevertheless, accepted it, and weighed anchor before the appointed time upon perceiving his associate to do so.

All day the Dutch brig was in sight, though by evening she had dwindled to the merest speck on the northern horizon. The course prescribed for Blood and Levasseur lay eastward along the northern shores of Hispaniola. To that course the Arabella continued to hold steadily throughout the night. When day broke again she was alone. La Foudre, under cover of the darkness had struck away to the northeast with every rag of canvas on her yards.

Cahusac had attempted yet again to protest against this.

"The devil take you!" Levasseur had answered him. "A ship's a ship, be she Dutch or Spanish, and ships are our present need. That will suffice for the men."

Dawn found La Foudre close on the Dutchman's heels, not a mile astern, and the sight of her very evidently flustered the Jongvrouw. They sent a warning shot across her bow. The Jongvrouw veered, showed them her rudder, and opened fire with her stern chasers. The small shot went whistling through La Foudre's shrouds with some slight damage to her canvas.

Five minutes after that they were board and board, the Jongvrouw held tight in the clutches of La Foudre's grapnels, and the buccaneers pouring noisily into her waist.

The Dutchman's master, purple in the face, stood forward to beard the pirate, followed closely by an elegant, pale-faced young gentleman in whom Levasseur recognized his brother-in-law cleet.

"Captain Levasseur, this is an outrage for which you shall be made to answer. What do you seek aboard my ship?"

"At first I sought only that which belongs to me, something of which I am being robbed. But since you chose war and opened fire on me with some damage to my ship and loss of life to five of my men, war it is, and your ship a prize of war."

From the quarter rail Mademoiselle d'Oregon looked down with glowing eyes in breathless wonder upon her well-beloved hero. Gloriously heroic he seemed as he stood towering there, masterful, audacious, beautiful. He saw her, and with a glad shout sprang towards her. The Dutch master got in his way with hands upheld to arrest his progress. Levasseur did not stay to argue with him; he was too impatient to reach his mistress. He swung the poleaxe that he carried, and the Dutchman went down in blood with a cloven skull. The eager lover stepped across the body and came on, his countenance joyously alight. But mademoiselle was shrinking now, in horror. In a bound her well-beloved was beside her. But she still shrank even within his embrace, which would not be denied; a look of dread had come to temper the normal arrogance of her almost perfect face.

"Why, why did you kill him?" He laughed as a hero should; and answered her heroically, with the tolerance of a god for the mortal to whom he condescends: "He stood between us. Let his death be a symbol, a warning. Let all who would stand between us mark it and beware."

It was so splendidly terrific, the gesture of it was so broad and fine and his magnetism so compelling, that she cast her silly tremors and yielded herself freely, intoxicated, to his fond embrace. Thereafter he swung her to his shoulder, and stepping with ease beneath that burden, bore her in a sort of triumph, lustily cheered by his men, to the deck of his own ship.

"RUN DOWN" MEN

AND WOMEN NEED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

They Give New Vitality and more.

The expression "run down" comes from the feeble action of an unwound clock, and the comparison is a good one. Applied to health it means a condition in which the bodily functions are enfeebled. Appetite fails, digestion is impaired, the nerves impoverished, the complexion becomes pale and fatigue is a constant symptom. No particular organ being affected, you must look for relief through the blood, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best blood builder known to medical science. As your blood becomes rich and red, the various organs regain their tone and the body recovers its full vigor. If you are weak, begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to-day and see how soon improvement will show in increased appetite and renewed vitality. Mrs. Chas. Bourdage, Flye Flingers, N.B., says:—"Before taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was completely run down. I did not sleep well, my digestion was poor and I would take dizzy spells. The use of the pills changed all this and I am now a strong healthy woman."

LITTLE HELPS FOR THIS WEEK

He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down and without walls.—Prov. xxv.

Real story Springs from the quiet conquest of ourselves. And without that the conqueror is nought. But the first slave.—Thomson

Rest not in an ovation, but in a triumph over thy passions. Let anger walk hanging down the head; let malice go manacled and envy fettered after thee. Behold within thee the whole train of thy troubles, not without thee. Chain up the unruly legion of thy breast, lead thine own captivity captive, and be Caesar within thyself.—Sir Thomas Browne.

A PIE SOCIAL

"A pie a day keeps the doctor away".

A delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, on Thursday the 26th, the occasion being a pie social given by the Westerdale Ladies Aid.

The weather being favorable we saw a large gathering amongst whom were: Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Swingle, Mr. and Mrs. Morphy, Mr. and Mrs. O. Swingle, Miss Boutin and the Misses White.

We expected to see the social have more the the nature of a pie eating contest but everyone seemed rather afraid of the "afters". However a few did ample justice to the ladies' endeavours and so far we have no news of sickness. We were anxious on Cecil's behalf but he seems to have a strong constitution. He evidently had a load on his mind, or elsewhere, when he could not walk across the room without upsetting a pie.

From our friends we drew a large selection of musical entertainment which we heartily appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson are to be congratulated for their efforts. As an ice cream maker Frank is unsurpassed.

D'you like pork and beans? Well come and give them beans at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Swingle on Thursday, March 12th.
